This week – Almost Anything Goes

We had a fun filled week this week! The weather was beautiful for our adventures. Wednesday, even though the camp was full of people in their pjs, everyone was ready for a fun filled day! Thursday was carnival day where all the campers were able to come and enjoy a carnival on the camp grounds! All the campers left with a huge smile on their faces, as well as a snake as a prize!

We enjoyed the beautiful weather by

- Playing jump the river
- Drawing beautiful pictures with chalk
- Eating snack outside
- Enjoyed the all camp carnival
- Splashing in the water on water day

We also made the most of our time inside by

- Playing parachute games
- Making beaded bracelets
- Making fun shapes out of play-doh
- Playing games in the gym such as Mr. Fox and Red Rover
- Making picture frames as well as fish out of hand prints

Next Week – Jungle Week

Next week is going to be a Zoo at camp! On Monday we have an animal show coming to camp, giving the campers an opportunity to see fun animals up close. Following, we have an animal dress up day on Tuesday where campers get to dress up as their favorite animals! Wednesday will be an adventure at camp when all the campers bring their favorite stuffed animal to camp to show the other campers. Thursday will be a fun filled last water day, and sadly Friday is the last day of camp.
